victous drive and retired the silent mem er of the Quakers at first. The Philadelphians opened the way to the rubber, setting their lone tally in the first inning. With Paskert out of it, three successive singles by Titus, Magec and Luderus filled the sacks. The latter's drive to left was handled so quickly by Devore that Titus could not score. by Devore that Titus could not score.

Marquard, however, made the way easy for John to reach the plate by walking Walsh, thereby forcing home the Quakers' solitary run. Powney then forced Magee at the rubber by tapping to Marquard and Doolan ended the inning by rolling one to Herzos, who cut down Walsh going to second.

After that round Marquard was the whole shooting match. The Glants tied the score in the second. A hit to centre by Becker, a pass to Herzos and Meyers's roller to Luderus, which advanced each base runner, were followed by Fletcher's out at first, allowing Becker to score. They took the lead in the next inning, when Walsh fumbled Devore's roller after which came singles by Dovle and Snodgrass opened the sixth by outrunning a Cincin at the first of the first of the sixth by outrunning a counder to Doolan. Murray whiffed, but when Titus dropped Becker's low liner, Fred reached second, whence he scored when Herzos hit sharply over the same cushion.

liner, Fred reached second, whence he scored when Herzog hit sharply over the same cushion. If there was any lingering doubt as to the final outcome, the Giants dispelled it in the next inning, when they grabbed a trio of tallies. Downey started trouble for his side by making a two base wild toss of Fletcher's grounder. Marquard put his shortstop on third with a single to right and, after Devore was called out on strikes, Poyle doubled the two runners home. Snodgrass walked and when Murray hit to centre for two sacks, Larry scored. Becker forced Snodgrass at the plate by rapping to Doolan, and Herzog ended the inning by lifting to Magee. Snodgrass was hit in the ninth and moved to second on Murray's short single to right. The two runners then engineered the double steal and when Becker sacrifice filed to Paskert, Snodgrass dented the rubber for the seventh and last run of the morning.

luck cut a factor in the first inning of the afternoon game for the from the fickle old dame, the New Yorks would have wen the game anyway as subsequent developments materialized. Manager Dooin sent Chalmers to the mound to start the afternoon contest, this being the first time out for the New York boy this year, but after he had given Devore, Doyle and Snodgrass passes he was yanked out and Alexander sent in. When Alex took up the burden left by Chalmers he found the ha nobody out. He whiffed Murray in st play by Pat Moran, gave the Giants three Becker lifted a little fly out to Magee, but the latter, being overanxious about catchthe plate in a futile effort to head off the

This set the stage for Moran to get in his ivory headed stunt. SCHULTE'S FIRST HOME RUN.

Double Header.

Wins for Cubs. Who Beat Reds in a

CHICAGO, May 30 .- The Cubs won both sames from the Cincinnati Reds to-day and moved into third place in the Na-tional League. Instead of a morning and an afternoon game, a double header was played and 20,000 fans saw the Cubs take the first contest 3 to 2, and the second 8 to 4. The second game was called after eight innings to let the Cubs catch a train.

e first game was a pitchers' battle GIANTS TAKE WIDE RISKS between Chency and Rube Benton. Frank Schulte drove the ball over the right held fence in the third inning for his irist heme run of the year, scoring Sheck-ard ahead. Three hits in a row in the sixth gave the Cubs their third run. In the second game Bagby and Smith lasted only a short time for the Reds, Hum-phries, who followed, pitched fairly well, but the damage had been done.

PIRATES COME BACK STRONG.

ardinals Win in Morning, but Last Laugh Is by Home Team.

PITTSBURG, May 30.—The Pirates broke even in to-day's double header with the Cardinals, losing the morning fray by a score of 8 to 3 and capturing the sec-ond, score 9 to 7.

The morning game was won by the Cardinals in the very first inning, when eleven of them went to bat, six of whom scored. Camnitz began as the pitcher for Pittsburg, but was taken out with the bases full and three runs over. Hendrix was sent to the rubber and gave Wingo a base on balls, forcing Evans over the plate. A single by Magee brought the fifth and sixth runs in. Pittsburg made fifth and sixth runs in. Fittsburg made desperate efforts to overcome the lead, but succeeded in scoring only three times. Fittsburg won the afternoon game by hitting Humon hard in the first four innings. O Toole pitched a good game, wild at times, but unnittable when a hit counted. The locals hit Harmon off the mound in the fourth, Dale succeeding him. O Toole went wild in the minth and forced three runners over the plate by walking batters with the bases filled. Robinson went on the rubber and retired the side by fanning Bliss.

PENN FUMBLE LETS-IN WINNING HARVARD RUNS

Donovan, Who Muffs, Also Bats Across Losers' Only Tally.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30 .- Harvard won from Pennsylvania to-day by the score of 2 to 1. It was a fumble by Donovan in the sixth that let in both of Harvard's in the sixth that let in both of Harvard's runs and Imlay was thus prevented from pitching himself out of a hole in which he forced himself by allowing a hit and then issuing two passes.

And it was Ponovan also who batted in Penn's only run by clouting a three bagger after Felton had walked Thayer. And Donovan secured both the hits made off Felton. The Harvard pitcher was very effective when he was able to locate the plate, but Penn would have won but for Ionovan's muff.

Notwithstanding a couple of errors this week Birdie Cree has been doing fine fielding. In each of the last four games he has made an exceptional catch and he has been covering acres of ground.

Maloney, the outfielder and speed wonder from Brockton, has reported to the High-landers, but is alling with a cold.

The Cardinals made good use of their stay n Pittsburg, tsking three out of four from the Pirates, whose upward climb is being long deferred.

"Far be it from us to manage," says a Hilliop fan, "but with Vaughn winning about once a month, why not give South-paws Hoff and Shears more of a chance?"

Boston, May 30.—Washington and Boston divided the two games to-day, the locals winning in the morning 3 to 2. the locals winning in the morning 3 to 2, while the visitors, with Johnson at his best, scored a 5 to 0 shutout in the afternoon. The morning game was a pitchers battle, with honors fairly even. Boston won out in the eighth, Knight booted a grounder from Lewis and the latter scored on Gardner's triple. Gardner scored the winning run on Bradley's sacrifice fly. In the afternoon Johnson stood the locals on their heads, thirteen falling before him on strikeouts, while O'Brien was easy for Washington to hit.

Considering the conditions the s was remarkable, for it rained when Kirkby and Archie Reid of St. drew's finished that one could not objects distinctly a mashie shot awar Reid, thanks to a brilliant wind wherein he made the last three holes only one over threes, came within two strokes of tieing his partner. In other words, the moment it began to rain Reid became a Vardon, so to speak. Such are the vagarles of goif.

Kirkby, in the bad going, lost several strokes, but as he had gone out in 34 and his card for thirteen holes showed three better than fours, he had something to spare. The only other player besides Kirkby and Reid to get under so in the medal round was W. R. Betts of the home club with a 77. Betts was prominent as an amateur when golf in America was in its swaddling clothes for the vagarles of goif.

America was in its swaddling clothes back in 1897 he was runner up to H J. Whigham in the national tournament at Shinnecock. The deluge, which set almost every awash, was at its height about noon, thing movable in the Ramapo Valley Greens quickly became inundated so that players using balls that swam had cause to regret. Some of the contestants never holed out at all; others stopped in despair, for which, according to the rules of golf, they were disqualified. So large was the disqualified and withdrawal list that the committee decided to provide especially for that class by placing the with the construction of the construction of the unfortunates in a third sixteen.

Kirkby's first slip came at the four-teenth hole, where, after playing safely from the tee with an iron, he pulled his second to the rough. Two shots were
